

BOND UNIVERSITY

Graduation

FEBRUARY 2021

Vision and Mission

Mission

As Australia's first private non-profit University, Bond University seeks to be recognised internationally as a leading independent university, imbued with a spirit to innovate, a commitment to influence and a dedication to inspire tomorrow's professionals who share a personalised and transformational student experience.

Values

- Respect and concern for students and colleagues.
- Truth, inquiry and the pursuit of advanced knowledge.
- Excellence in everything we do and pride in achievements.
- Effective collaboration and teamwork.
- Accountability for performance, actions and learning.
- Productive engagement between students and staff.

A message to our Graduates

My most sincere and personal congratulations go to each and every graduate. This is a very significant achievement and one of which you should feel, justifiably, very proud.

We realise that you had a choice about where to embark on your tertiary journey and are sincerely appreciative that you entrusted Bond with your further education. Thank you for your commitment to the University, for your active involvement in campus life and for fully embracing the Bond experience. You and your fellow graduates have helped shape our vibrant and energetic learning culture.

As you move to the next stage of your lives, I encourage you, no matter which academic program you completed, to align yourself with your Alumni.

Bondies, just like you, live and work in every imaginable field in all corners of the world. They demonstrate the best of Bond initiative, enterprise and contribution, taking their Bond experience with them every step of the way.

Our global Alumni network is a dynamic and influential family, forging business, social and philanthropic connections through more than 20 active and energetic Alumni Committees in Australia, Europe, Asia, North America and Africa. The local and international connections lead to exclusive career opportunities and produce meaningful relationships.

Your lifelong membership of this elite circle is one of the most valuable gifts that the University can give to you.

We especially enjoy welcoming Bondies back on campus each May for our annual Homecoming festivities.

As well as acknowledging your peer graduates, I also encourage you to be appreciative of the people who have helped you on your path. I know that your families, friends and other support networks have been instrumental in your success and share your pride.

But, most of all, I hope that you enjoy the moment, celebrating your achievements and reflect on your journey at Bond.

Congratulations again. I am delighted that, through you, the Bond legacy will continue.

Professor Tim Brailsford
Vice Chancellor and President

MEDALS AND AWARDS

Grenby Family Beyond Bond Medal

Caio Christiansen
Bachelor of Biomedical Science

Bond University recognises the student who has performed at an exceptional level within the Beyond Bond Program in each graduating class. Beyond Bond provides all undergraduate students with a recognition and learning framework embedded within Core Curriculum to enhance employability, whilst providing personalised support to students as they participate in a broad range of academic and extracurricular activities for the duration of their degree.

The late Emeritus Professor Mike Grenby devoted himself to Bond students since he joined the University in 1998 until his passing in 2019. The Grenby Family proudly support the Grenby Family Beyond Bond Medal, to nurture and reward the creative spirit of our students. The award includes a medal, certificate and cash prize. Emeritus Professor Grenby introduced the public speaking subject to Bond University in 1999, now offered as a Beyond Bond intensive workshop, The Unfair Advantage - which features the iconic Toga Speech, undertaken by thousands of students.

2020 John F Kearney Gold Medal

Olivia Frances English
Bachelor of Laws (Honours Class 1)

The Law Gold Medal, donated by Dr John Kearney AM, QC, may be awarded in February to a student who has fulfilled the requirements for graduation in the preceding calendar year. In order to be eligible for the Gold Medal, a student must have completed at least 20 law subjects at Bond University. The best 20 law subjects are used in calculating academic achievement. The medal will only be awarded if there is a graduate of sufficient merit and it will not necessarily be awarded each year.

2020 John Hardy Achievement Medal

Kimberley Ellen Bernard
Bachelor of Communication

Emeritus Professor John Hardy was recruited to Bond University as Foundation Dean of the School of Humanities and Social Sciences in 1987 from the Australian National University. A native of the Gold Coast, Professor Hardy graduated from the University of Queensland and then went on to complete his postgraduate qualifications at Oxford University, where he held a Rhodes Scholarship. He is a distinguished literary scholar and a fellow of the Academy of the Humanities.

2020 Marilyn Jones Achievement Medal

John Robert Harry Dickson
Master of Actuarial Practice (Big Data) (High Distinction)

The Bond Business School honours the outstanding postgraduate student each year with the Marilyn Jones Achievement Medal.

Originally from Dayton, (Ohio), Marilyn Jones worked at both the University of Houston and the University of Illinois at Chicago before taking up a position in the Bond University Business School in 1995. For much of her time at Bond, Marilyn fulfilled the role of Department Head (Marketing) and she was later appointed Associate Dean (Development) in the Business School. Marilyn loved Bond and her work at this University. She was well known throughout the entire Bond community and is fondly remembered by all who knew her.

2020 Steven Johnson Memorial Medal

Shaun George McKay
Bachelor of Actuarial Science

The Bond Business School honours its Foundation Dean, Professor Steven Johnson, by awarding each year the Steven Johnson Memorial Medal to the top highest achieving undergraduate student of the year. Professor Johnson died tragically in a drowning accident at Mudgeeraba Creek Crossing in April 1989, barely two weeks before the University opened its doors to its first students.

He was born in the United States and trained in economics, accounting and law. Before coming to Bond he served on the faculties of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and Columbia University. He also worked for Arthur Andersen & Co. and Peat Marwick Mitchell & Co. Professor Johnson laid the foundations for the successful Bond Business School we have today.

2020 Soheil Abedian Medal of Excellence (Undergraduate)

Gemma Rose Borra
Bachelor of Architectural Studies

The Soheil Abedian Medal of Excellence acknowledges the highest achieving undergraduate in the Bachelor of Architectural Studies program each year at Bond University. Since the inception of the Soheil Abedian School of Architecture in 2010, students have been encouraged to use creative design thinking toward imaginative possibilities in our globalised world. Our medal benefactor and school namesake, Dr Soheil Abedian, is a strong supporter of this learning philosophy and this has been demonstrated by his long standing support of a number of student scholarships and initiatives in partnership with Bond University. With his continued support, interest and involvement the Soheil Abedian School of Architecture has gone from strength to strength, and the Medal of Excellence reflects the quality of graduates from this innovative program.

UNIVERSITIES AND ACADEMIC DRESS

From the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries western universities began to develop distinctive academic dress and while popular dress moved to less cumbersome and shorter attire, academic dress remained conservative and evolved into the tunica which was a gown worn open at the front. It is from this attire the typical English bachelors' and masters' gowns have evolved. The colour of the robes has an equally long history.

Black has long been the standard colour for bachelors' and masters' robes, although the twentieth century has seen the introduction of various hues. The use of scarlet robes for doctoral degrees dates from the sixteenth century.

The hood was originally no more than a functional mediaeval head covering, rather like the hood of a modern parka. In monasteries built of stone with little, if any, glazing this article of dress was no doubt welcome, particularly during the northern European winter. In colder climates these hoods were often trimmed with fur. The connection between these early practical solutions to living conditions and modern academic dress may still be seen in the fur-trimmed academic hoods of the University of Sydney. From the outset the basic organisational unit or form of association in universities was the faculty, a group of scholars who taught the same or related subjects. From the late seventeenth century academic colours were codified in the universities on the basis of faculties.

The trencher or mortarboard hat is from Oxford and Cambridge Universities. In the fourteenth century clergy were ordered to wear a pileus, a simple hat. This was modified by the University of Paris in the sixteenth century into a square cap which, at Oxford and Cambridge, became very large, flat and floppy, underneath which a skull cap was worn. In the seventeenth century the skull cap and the flat square cap became a single item and a board was introduced to the upper portion to prevent the side pieces falling over the face. The tassel was added in the eighteenth century.

At Bond University the academic dress which has been adopted is traditional and typifies that found in most Australian universities. The academic dress worn by graduands at today's ceremony comprises of a traditional black gown, a hood and trencher. For its masters' degrees Bond University has chosen a hood made in the blue of the University and lined in the colour of the discipline in which the degree was taken. For bachelors' degrees the hood is made in black cloth. Colours adopted by Bond University are:

Bond Business School
Business	Gold
Faculty of Health Sciences &amp; Medicine	Green
Faculty of Law	Lilac
Faculty of Society &amp; Design
Humanities and Social Sciences	White
Sustainable Development and Architecture	Aqua

While Bond University is establishing for itself a reputation for innovation in tertiary education, it also sees itself as an institution continuing the traditions of the great universities of the western world. It is for this reason that traditional academic dress has been chosen.

BOND UNIVERSITY

The Bond University Crest designed by the late Michael Bryce, displays the Southern Cross on a field of stripes. These stripes (representing computer pixels) symbolise "technology" while the wavy bands represent water, a prominent feature of the University and Gold Coast. To complete this picture, a gold sunburst frames the open Book of Knowledge. This complements the University Motto "Forever Learning".

The Bond University Mace - generously donated by long time friends and benefactors of the University, the late Dr John Kearney, AO, QC and Mrs Alison Kearney.

The Mace, a club-like weapon, has throughout western history also represented a ceremonial symbol of office. In universities the Mace signifies the high office of the Chancellor and is borne before the Chancellor on ceremonial occasions such as graduations.

Bond University's Mace was designed by Dr Ian Ferguson, a metal artist, formerly a Post-Doctoral Fellow at RMIT University and now a Research Fellow at Manchester University. The Mace was fabricated in collaboration with Melbourne based metal artist, Karl Millard, who teaches jewellery and metal work at RMIT.

The ball of the Mace is highly polished silver using a metalworking technique developed in Japan 300 years ago, known as Mokume Gane (literally 'eye of the wood grain metal' which refers to the pattern forged into katana or sword blades). Bond's armorial bearing is bezel set to the head of the mace in enamel.

The staff of the Mace has been shaped from gidgee (Acacia Cambagei), a slow growing Australian hardwood found in arid areas and used by Aboriginal people to make their spears.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses, income, and transfers between accounts. The document provides a detailed list of items that should be tracked, such as bank statements, credit card receipts, and invoices. It also outlines the best practices for organizing these records, such as using a consistent naming convention and backing up data regularly.

The second part of the document focuses on the process of reconciling accounts. It explains how to compare the company's internal records with the bank's records to identify any discrepancies. This process is crucial for detecting errors, such as double entries or missing transactions, and for ensuring that the company's books are in balance. The document provides a step-by-step guide to performing a reconciliation, including how to use spreadsheets to track differences and how to investigate and resolve any issues that arise.

The third part of the document discusses the importance of regular audits. It explains that audits are a key component of a sound financial management system, as they provide an independent review of the company's financial records. The document outlines the types of audits that are commonly performed, such as internal audits and external audits by professional accountants. It also provides tips for preparing for an audit, such as keeping records organized and up-to-date, and for addressing any findings that may be identified.

The final part of the document provides a summary of the key points discussed and offers some final thoughts on the importance of financial record-keeping. It emphasizes that maintaining accurate records is not just a legal requirement, but also a best practice for any business that wants to succeed in the long run. The document concludes by encouraging readers to take the time to review their financial records regularly and to seek professional advice if they are unsure about any aspect of the process.
